Description of Classes:

Beginners; Siberians that have never attended training classes or need reinforcement. Emphasis is on developing a working relationship between the Siberian and its handler. Your Siberian will learn basic commands such as come, sit, stand, stay and heel. You will learn to stop your Siberian from doing the "greeting jump" onto their owners and their friends; pulling you when you take your Siberian(s) for a walk as though you were a dogsled; and not sitting, downing, or staying when you command them to.

Instructor: Joan Proto; Joan specializes in teaching and preparing students and their dogs in competitive obedience. She also teaches agility, tracking classes, and confirmation handling. Joan's own dogs have earned numerous obedience titles and breed championships.
